

Are you looking for your next opportunity?

Sompo has a unique opportunity for an Actuarial Model Developer in our Global Pricing team in our Risk Modeling department.

We are looking for a Pricing Model Developer to play a critical role in revolutionizing Sompo's pricing capabilities through the development of pricing tools in a new cutting-edge web-based pricing platform (HX). In this role you will lead the development efforts for account pricing tools to enable a best-in-class pricing experience for underwriters. This is a great opportunity for the right individual to work as part of a global team to drive this pricing transformation as a key point of contact between actuaries & underwriters for all products.

Location: This position will be based out of our London office. We strive for collaboration which is why we offer a work environment where our employees thrive and develop long lasting careers.

Our business, your impact, our opportunity:

What you'll be doing:

- Support development and implementation of the new Sompo pricing platform, providing improved pricing tools across all classes, in line with the agreed plans.
- Work with the pricing & underwriting teams on the development of new models, rating tools and the continual improvement of existing ones.
- Promote consistent coding best practices.
- Support the development and enhancement of Pricing Management Information & Underwriter applications.
- Engage with overseas offices to ensure pricing tools are appropriate in local territories.
- Assist the technical modelling leader in other projects, as required.
- Keep up to date with insurance industry's technology and modelling trends.

What you'll bring:

Technical Skills

- Proficient in Python, with a solid understanding of SQL and database management to support effective data integration and analysis.
- Hands-on experience building web-based pricing tools.
- Application Development experience (R shiny, Power Apps, web interfaces)
- Solid understanding of conventional actuarial techniques and standards of practice

Other Skills & Experience

- 5+ years of non-life actuarial pricing experience is a distinct advantage.
- Ability to work in an Agile framework.
- Effective communication, presentation and interpersonal skills.
- Ability to work closely and effectively with the development team, pricing actuaries and Underwriters, ensuring clear communication and alignment of technical objectives and project milestones.
- Exhibits self-motivation and drive; takes initiative without the need for approval.
- Highly professional, enthusiastic and positive attitude.
- Ability to handle complexity and distil out and explain key concepts.
