

Are you looking for your next opportunity?

Sompo has a unique opportunity for a Senior Reserving Analyst in Economic and Statutory Reserving within our Actuarial Reserving team.

Our Actuarial Reserving team provides essential actuarial support to various stakeholders within the company. Specifically, the Economic and Statutory Reserving team plays a critical role in supporting Financial Reporting and Regulatory Compliance. We determine reserves under multiple frameworks, including economic reserving based on market conditions and statutory reserving based on regulatory requirements. Our team delivers accurate and timely reserve estimates for financial reporting purposes, ensuring that the company's reserves align with regulatory standards. This includes adhering to guidelines set by relevant local regulatory bodies.

Location: This position will be based out of our London office. We strive for collaboration which is why we offer a work environment where our employees thrive and develop long lasting careers.

Our business, your impact, our opportunity:

What you'll be doing:

- Assist in the provision of reserving inputs for both group and local regulatory needs, including:
 - IFRS17
 - Solvency II Technical Provisions
 - BMA Economic Balance Sheet Technical Provisions
 - Singapore MAS actuarial opinions
 - International Capital Standard calculations
- Assist Signing Actuaries in various jurisdictions to complete the necessary reports to support actuarial opinions.
- Collaborate with the Reserving and Finance teams to manage and compile data sets for the regulatory reporting process.
- Participate in special projects that provide a deeper understanding of trends and emerging risks within the Sompo portfolio, as well as other projects required by the business.
- Develop and leverage relationships within the Actuarial function and other departments such as Risk, Claims, Finance, and Financial Planning & Analysis, as well as with the Head Office, to enhance understanding of Sompo's business and processes.

What you'll bring:

- Institute and Faculty of Actuaries accreditation (Student), or equivalent through experience or alternative qualifications.
- A minimum of 5 years of experience in general insurance is preferred, including some knowledge of insurance regulatory requirements.
- Excellent interpersonal, written, and oral communication skills.
- Well-organised, with the ability to thrive in a fast-paced environment and consistently meet deadlines without compromising quality.
- Strong IT skills, including proficiency with common MS Office Products.
- Some programming experience would be beneficial. Familiarity with SQL and VBA would be highly advantageous.
