

Are you looking for your next opportunity?

Sompo has a unique opportunity for an Underwriter in our Excess Casualty team.

Sompo's Excess Casualty underwriting operations in Bermuda have been offering reliable financial protection for large and complex North American businesses for over 20 years, safeguarding them against corporate liabilities with the strong backing of Sompo Holdings. Collaborating with wholesale brokers in Bermuda and London, our goal is to deliver essential insurance solutions through long-term partnerships and exceptional service.

Location: This position will be based out of our Bermuda office. We strive for collaboration which is why we offer a work environment where our employees thrive and develop long lasting careers.

Our business, your impact, our opportunity:

What you'll be doing:

- Develop and maintain long-term profitable portfolio of Excess Casualty Liability risks
- Build and enhance relationships with brokers and clients to identify and establish new distribution relationships
- Underwrite, price and negotiate accounts in line with the company's strategy and risk appetite
- Coordinate all stages of the underwriting process such as marketing, risk analysis, evaluating and prioritizing submissions, underwriting strategy, pricing programs and submissions, contract negotiation and contract maintenance
- Exercise discretion and independent judgment in the analysis and evaluation of risks
- Partner with the Actuarial department through the rating process
- Assist with strategic planning by developing and maintaining suitable management information to effectively evaluate the portfolio
- Identify and drive new product development opportunities, including working proactively with other underwriting teams to identify and capitalize on cross sell opportunities
- Support the training and development of underwriting and technical staff

What you'll bring:

- Minimum 3 - 5 years of insurance or reinsurance industry experience, particularly in underwriting or broking
- Preferred experience in managing complex excess and/or umbrella liability risks
- Ability to effectively communicate information and ideas to influence and grow our business
- Analytical and marketing skillsets, with the ability to strategically assess data and effectively promote solutions
- Flexibility to work extended hours and a readiness to travel as needed
- Undergraduate degree or industry designations (e.g., CPCU, ACII) preferred but not required

In today's world, what do we stand for?

Together, we strive for excellence and ensure the focus remains on what really matters and sets us apart; providing a frictionless journey for our clients, delivering solutions with the ease of expertise, and ensuring that Sompo remains a company we are all proud to be part of.

Sompo is an equal opportunity employer, and we foster a workplace where every individual's unique talents and perspectives are not only welcomed but celebrated. We are deeply committed to creating an inclusive environment that values diversity in all its forms. Regardless of race, color, religion, sexual orientation, national origin, or age, we believe in providing equal opportunities, fostering inclusivity and ensuring fairness for all.
